

Awesome Dolls

Featured Website

My Life At Hogwarts by Ruthie Smithens

<http://mydollsblog.blogspot.com/>

Meet a Reader

What are your interests? I love, love, love, reading! Reading, writing, and star wars. I love star wars. I write star wars plays, as well.

What is your favorite food? I really like pasta. Especially ravioli.

What is your favorite thing to do with your doll/dolls? I like to play roman sci-fi, which is when she is in roman times, and then she meets my sister's doll, (jess) and they are like, total geniuses and they invent a space ship and go to space. Star wars space. The best of both worlds, right? AG and star wars?

How many dolls do you have? 1. My doll is very dear to my heart. I have had her since I was 7. I used to have my mom style my hair like hers. It's waaaay to short now.

Which doll/dolls do you have? Kirsten

What is your favorite movie? Star wars. All of the ones I have seen, I loved. I have seen most of The Phantom Menace, (an excellent movie) A new hope, (funny and exciting, although I could tell a lot of the special effects were fake) the beginning of the empire strikes back, (don't ask) And Return of the jedi (a few things I could have done without). Other movies I like are The Lion, The Witch, and The Wardrobe, How to Train Your Dragon, (I'm nuts about dragons) and Kit, the movie.

—Corsicapeace

Thank you so much, Corsicapeace, for giving me this information. Just so you know, Corsicapeace is a code name for her. I will have a "Meet a Reader" in every issue so if you would like to be in the magazine just email me your answers to the following questions.

What are your interests?

What is your favorite food (not counting drinks, milkshakes, or smoothies)?

What is your favorite thing to do with your doll/dolls?

How many dolls do you have?

Which doll/dolls do you have?

What is your favorite movie?

The Galleria of Pictures

If you have any pictures, please email me them and I might put them in this magazine.

Read 4 Ever Part 1

By Hannah D.

Mara, Kyanna, and Harmonie Read walked down the sidewalk to Rothlands Academy. They had been orphaned a week before and now were on their way to a new life and a new school. “What a big place,” said Harmonie, trying to break the silence. Mara and Kyanna just nodded and continued walking. I guess that before we continue on with this story I should tell you some things about these three girls. Mara Trinity Read was thirteen and had brown hair and brown eyes. She was a bold girl who never backed down. Kyanna Blaine Read was twelve and had bright red hair and green eyes. She was a generally smart, quiet, and shy girl. Harmonie Raine Read was eleven and had black hair and blue eyes. People often commented on how pretty she was, but Harmonie was never ostentatious. Now that you know some more about the girls, we can continue on with the story. As they were nearing the school, they saw two identical Chinese girls who looked about Harmonie’s age. They both had black hair and brown eyes as typical Chinese people do. They two girls looked at Mara, Kyanna, and Harmonie and ran to catch up with them. “Hello!” said the two girls merrily. “My name is Sage-Lin Yang-“ “-and I’m Reena Yang.” Mara, being a brave girl, said, “I’m Mara Read and these are my sisters, Kyanna and Harmonie.” “It’s nice to meet you,” said Sage-Lin. “How old are you three?” asked Reena. “I’m thirteen,” said Mara. “I’m twelve,” said Kyanna. “And I’m eleven,” said Harmonie. “We’re both eleven as well. That means that we will be in the same classes,” said Sage-Lin to Harmonie. They continued walking as they talked. “They put you in classes based on age?” asked Mara. “Based on grade,” corrected Reena. “Who is the headmistress?” asked Harmonie. “Mrs. Nambia Akiko is the headmistress. She is very strict and I will warn you to stay on her good side,” said Sage-Lin. “We better hurry, Reena, or we’ll be late for grammar.” “See you later!” said Reena as Sage-Lin and Reena hurried to the building. “We better hurry ourselves so that we don’t miss meeting Mrs. Akiko,” said Mara. And with that the girls hurried to the building themselves, wondering what Rothlands Academy would be like.

Miscellaneous Page

This will be a page devoted to something besides AG dolls. I do want you to vote on what the next issue's miscellaneous page will be. Because this is our first issue, we will not have a topic for this magazine. Please email me which of the topics you would like to have in this magazine. If you have any suggestions, that would be great also.

Which topic should be on the miscellaneous page in the next issue?

1. Books
2. Movies
3. Star Wars
4. Harry Potter

About the Author

Hannah D. is a middle school girl who is homeschooled. She will not say her full name, age, birthday, or state for security reasons. She has three AG dolls which are Kit, Ruthie, and Chrissa. She owns the blog “My Life is Turning Chinese!” under Azalea Shanghai which is her pen name. She decided to do this magazine when she saw that Simply AG Magazine was taking a break. She immediately decided that she would do her own magazine. She hopes that she will not quit like she has done with her newspapers. She hopes that she will be able to do it every month and not every week or five months. But above all, she hopes that people love her magazine and look forward to it every month.

“Bravery is not when you fight but the courage not to fight.”

-Hannah D.

Find her at:

www.awsomeedolls.blogspot.com

(Awesome is meant to be spelled awesome)

coming up in the next issue...

1. Miscellaneous Page Results
2. The first chapter of a story by Corsicapeace
3. Meet Meghan B., the author of “What It’s Like to be a Jedi,” “A Day and a Life of American Girl Dolls,” and “What It’s Like to be a Pirate of the Caribbean”
4. Several new pictures